I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that ...

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge ...

What is the opposite of free as in "free of charge" (when we speak about prices)? We can add not for negation, but I am looking for a single word.

If you are storing documents, however, you should choose either the mediumtext or longtext type. Could you please tell me what free-form data entry is? I know what data entry is per se - when ...

1 "Free" absolutely means "free from any sorts constraints or controls. The context determines its different denotations, if any, as in "free press", "free speech", "free stuff" etc.

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage--a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over ...

My company gives out free promotional items with the company name on it. Is this stuff called company swag or schwag? It seems that both come up as common usages--Google ...

I want to make a official call and ask the other person whether he is free or not at that particular time. I think asking, "Are you free now?" doesn't sound formal. So, are there any ...
